RE: Cochise County Adult Diversion Program Summary FY 16-17

To Whom It May Concern:

The Cochise County Attorney's Office Adult Diversion Program (ADP) defers cases that are referred into the program by the prosecuting attorney. The program's primary objectives are to divert non-violent low risk offenders into a community-based program of rehabilitation while simultaneously maximizing limited public resources. These objectives are pursued within the more important context of public safety. Year end statistics are provided in the tables below.
